VISITORS MOST CORDIALLY INVITED.

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO GARDEN CLUBS.

1944 INTRODUCTIONS

GOLDEN SYMPHONY: (Plurabelle & Rameses) 39". This lovely combination of yellow and blue, bloomed after all other iris were gone and stalks dried up. It was very refreshing to find this late bloomer. S: large, wide yellow. F: lavender blue, edged in yellow like the standards. Four branches, 6 blooms. $15.00

INDIANA ROSE: (Aztec Glory & Riding High) 37". A lovely soft, bright rose self, admired by visitors and a good parent. $15.00

INDIANOLA: (B-64 & Red Comet) 37". Tall straight intense red self, with horizontal falls, markedly veined on haft, quite becomingly. Flowers large. Stood up through a 3-day rain without damage. $12.00.

WINSOME BLUE (Nene & Indian Hills) 38". Tall medium blue self, large blooms, and outstanding characteristics is its substance. It is well branched with wide horizontal perky falls. Quite a few visitors wanted to buy this iris and some left an address, so if I decided not to name it, I could notify them. $15.00

Due to labor shortage, the only condition under which I could get out my catalog this year, was to reduce and condense it as much as possible. So I have omitted varieties that my stock is limited on, and have listed 25¢ and 15¢ varieties on pages 8, 9 and 10, without descriptions.
